

Thanksgiving Traditions

A top-down view of a plate of food. In the center is a sunny-side-up fried egg with a runny yolk, topped with a brown sauce. To the left is a piece of fried chicken. To the right is a salad of green beans, cherry tomatoes, and other vegetables. At the bottom is a serving of roasted Brussels sprouts. A red, chunky sauce is at the top. The plate has a decorative floral pattern.

Macy's Day Parade

Turkey Trot/Road Race/Half Marathons

In the morning, people will run a very short race, usually it is 5 kilometers.

Food Drives/Donate Food

Schools and towns will have a “food drive” or “food donations” for those that do not have the money to buy a full Thanksgiving meal. This is usually for homeless people or people in a shelter.

You have to donate food that does not go bad (no fresh fruit and vegetables).

Black Friday/ Cyber Monday

- Black Friday is the day after Thanksgiving. Many stores have very big sales, so you can get items for less money than normal. It is very dangerous because people are aggressive.
- Cyber Monday is the Monday after Thanksgiving. It is the same as Black Friday but it is online shopping.
